LOCAL MATTERS.

WARD MEETINGS LAST NIGHT. NEW CITY CONSERVATIVE COMMITTEE.

The term for which the present Conservative Committee was elected having expired, meetings were held in the several wards of the city last night to elect new members of the committee. The meetings were but poorly attended considering the important interests at stake, though the selections were generally good. The following gives the result in each ward: Marshall Ward. The Marshall Ward meeting was called to order by C. J. Fox, ward superintendent. On motion of Captain Kellam, Mr. C. B. Lipscomb was called to the chair, and Mr. W. Hall Crew requested to act as secretary. The following gentlemen were placed in nomination: H. Metzger, J. J. Cannon, William Hall Crew, W. P. M. Kellam, Thomas O'Connor, P. G. Cogh'au, C. J. Fox, C. B. Lipscomb George Donley, A. R. Woodson, and John

The following gentlemen, baving received the highest number of votes, were declared elected: H. Metzger, A. R. Woodson, C. J. Fox, Sr., George W. Donley, William H. Crew.

Jefferson Ward. The Conservatives of Jefferson Ward met at the Police Court (Odd-Fellows' Hall). Mr. Robert H. Styll presided, and Mr. Louis F. Bossieux was chosen secretary. The following gentlemen were elected: Messrs. R. H. Styll, A. G. Babcock, George S. Turner, Thomas J. Schmidt, and William Wood. Mr. Turner takes the place of Mr. Maccubbin on the committee, he declining to serve.

The meeting in Madison Ward was held at Monticello Hall. Colonel John H. Guy presided, and Major F. A. G. Handy acted as secretary. The following gentlemen were placed in

Mr. Julius Straus offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That our members of the City Central Committee be requested to use their best endeavors to secure the adoption of a better primary-election plan than the one now in existence. It was urged that the new committee would do their best to perfect the primary-election plan, and Mr. Straus's resolution was therefore laid on the table.

Jackson Ward.

The meeting in Jackson Ward was called to order by the ward superintendent (Mr. Dan. Wren) at 8 o'clock. The attendance was very large. Its object was stated and the meeting proceeded to ballot with the following result: Members elected: Messrs. Daniel Wren, Ed. Cline, M. Irvin, Alois Rick, Charles Bigger. Vote of thanks tendered the retiring committee.

The meeting in Clay Ward was held at Lauer's Hall, on Main street. Mr. Z. W. Pickrell presided and Mr. B. T. August

As she entered it she outstretched her right hand, and was about to give one of the negroes who had testified against her an awful blow, when the chivalric Charlie Welsh, who at that moment was briefly sojourning in the vicinity, stepped up, took her hand, shook it cordially, and bade her welcome. Mrs. Donohue was so surprised at Charlie's reception of her she smiled, though reluctantly, and thereafter she was calm if not content.

At this juncture Mrs. Donohue was escent to the widow and a gentleman so much beloved and estermed by all who knew him. It would be much more in accord with our own quer the imperfections consequent upon our hasty orannization. Nevertheless, we will arrange a new programme for next Tuesday evening, and trust that the success of the occasion will be measured by our own herrifelt desires in that direction. We are most happy in the present instance, as we will ever be in the future, to render our feeble endeavors in behalf of the widow and orphan.
